St. Patrick’s Day Parade
GREATER NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

The St. Patrick’s Day Parade tradition was born in New Haven on March 17, 1842, when about 90 members of the Hibernian Provident Society, marched through the city streets behind a banner made especially for the occasion. Since the mid-1950’s the St. Patrick’s Day Parade of Greater New Haven has become one of New England’s premier Irish events. It is the largest, single-day spectator event in the State of Connecticut. As the 6th oldest parade in the nation, its fame was recognized by the Library of Congress in 1999.

The Greater New Haven St. Patrick’s Day Parade, steps off at 1:30 p.m., on Sunday, March 16, 2014.

If you are not planning to renew your lease, stop by the office or visit the Resident Portal to get a Move-Out Notice form. The Taft requires our residents to provide a 60 day written notice prior to the end of their lease. If there are questions about this please call, e-mail, or stop by the office.

The Taft team bids a fond farewell to Rachel Bocco, Sr. Leasing & Service Coordinator who has moved on to a new opportunity as of February 20th. Although Rachel is no longer working at The Taft, she will always remain part of the Taft family. Her strong customer service, valued marketing, smile, and sense of humor will be missed.

Fun Facts about St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick’s Day is observed on March 17 because that is the feast day of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. It is believed that he died on March 17 in the year 461 AD.

The actual color of St. Patrick is blue. Green became associated with St. Patrick’s Day during the 19th century. Green, in Irish legends, was worn by fairies and immortals, and also by people to encourage their crops to grow.

The very first St. Patrick’s Day parade was not in Ireland. It was in Boston in 1737.

Enjoy this St. Patrick’s Day Crossword! Finish it correctly and bring it to the Taft office with your name and apartment number to be entered to win a $25 gift certificate to a local restaurant!
