St. Patrick’s Day Parade
GREATER NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

The New Haven Hibernian Provident Society sponsored the first St. Patrick’s Day Parade held in New Haven, Connecticut on March 17, 1842. This makes our neighborhood parade one of the oldest St. Patrick’s Day Parades in New England and the sixth-longest-running parade in America.

This year’s parade is on Sunday, March 15th, 2015, starting at 1:30 p.m. It begins on Chapel Street at Sherman Avenue, and continues on Chapel Street toward the Green. The parade is approximately 3 hours and 1.8 miles long. The Associated Irish Societies d.b.a. New Haven St. Patrick’s Day Parade Committee Puts The parade together. The committee consists of local men and women who volunteer their time and talents for this tradition.
